Director,

Usually, about half of the enrollees in my criminal justice class at the U of M aspire to be law enforcement officers. (The other half leans toward being prosecutors/defense attorneys.)

Would you be willing to come speak to the class about police work, the type of person who would be a good recruit, the biggest challenges facing officers, etc. ?

While the schedule is flexible, I'm looking at Tuesday, February 27 as a possibility. The class meets at 11:20 a.m. on the U of M main campus, in 407 Mitchell Hall.

Let me know if that works.
